English Curriculum - Year 4

|   |   | English Curricu  |   |   |                            |
|---|---|--|---|---|----------------------------|
|   |   |  | nres  |   |                            |
| Autumn  |   |  | Spring  | Summer  |                            |
|   |   | ints (Newspaper)   | <ul> <li>Stories with Issues &amp; Dilemmas (Diary)</li> </ul>  |   |                            |
| · · ·   |   |  | rlds (Setting Description)  | <ul> <li>Information Texts</li> </ul>   |                            |
| <ul> <li>Poetry - Exploring Form / Images</li> </ul>  |   |  | lanation Texts  | <ul> <li>Stories from Other Cultures (Narrative)</li> </ul>   |                            |
| Spoken Language   |   |  |   |   |                            |
|   |   | Spoken   |   |   |                            |
| Pupils should be taught to:  Use intonation to emphasis grammar and punctuation when reading aloud.   |   |  |   |   |                            |
| Engage in discussions, making relevant points.  |   |  | Give just enough detail to keep the audience engaged.   |   |                            |
| Ask for specific additional information to clarify.   |   |  | Bring stories to life with expression and intonation.   |   |                            |
| <ul> <li>Understand the meaning of some phrases beyond the literal interpretation.</li> </ul>   |   |  | Read the audience to know when to add detail and when to leave it out.  |   |                            |
| Use time, size and other measurements to quantify.  Use time, size and other measurements to quantify.  |   |  | Make relevant comments or ask questions in a discussion or a debate.  |   |                            |
| Ose interesting dajectives, daverbial phrases and extended  |   |  | Seek clarification by actively seeking to understand others' points of view.  |   |                            |
| <ul> <li>Use vocabulary that is appropriate to the topic being discussed or the audience that is listening.</li> <li>Respectfully challenge opinions or points, offering an alternative.</li> </ul>   |   |  |   |   |                            |
| <ul> <li>Use verbs with irregular endings.</li> </ul>   |   |  |   |   |                            |
| <ul> <li>Use a mixture of sentence lengths to add interest to disc</li> </ul>   | ussions and explanations.   |  |   |   |                            |
| Tarakina of Ohanias dunina Fualish lassans will acutinus fan akilduan who   | did not complete Cook cooks   |  | nics  | a and in their Desnice Imageled at the conserve daily Dhaving Trition   |                            |
| Teaching of Phonics, during English lessons, will continue for children who  Reading - Word Reading   | ala not complete Grey group   | in RWI by the end of year 3. Children who are                              | ·   |   |                            |
| Pupils should be taught to:   |   | Pupils should be taught to:  | keading -   | Comprehension   |                            |
| <ul> <li>apply their growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes (et</li> </ul>  |   | •  | and understanding of what they read by:   |   |                            |
| ,,,   |   |  |   | vence hooks on texthooks  |                            |
| as listed in English Appendix 1, both to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words  • listening to and discussing a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks  |   |  |   |   |                            |
| they meet  read further exception words, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound,  using dictionaries to check the meaning of words that they have read  using dictionaries to check the meaning of words that they have read   |   |  |   |   |                            |
| and where these occur in the word.  | ween spenning and sound,  |     | ing of words that they have readde range of books, including fairy stories, myths (   | and leaends and retelling some of these anally  |                            |
| and where mese occur in the word.   |   | <ul> <li>identifying themes and conventions i</li> </ul>                   |   | and regences, and retenning some of these orang   |                            |
|   |   |  |    | a through interaction, tong volume and action   |                            |
| <ul> <li>preparing poems and play scripts to read aloud and to perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone, volume and action</li> <li>discussing words and phrases that capture the reader's interest and imagination</li> </ul>   |   |  |   |   |                            |
|   |   | •  | poetry [for example, free verse, narrative poetr  | w]  |                            |
|   |   | <ul> <li>understand what they read, in books</li> </ul>                    |   | I   |                            |
|   |   |  | to them, discussing their understanding and explo   | nining the magning of words in context  |                            |
|   |   | <ul> <li>asking questions to improve their und</li> </ul>                  |   | aning the meaning of words in context   |                            |
|   |   |  |   | their actions and justifying informace with avidence  |                            |
| drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence  and distinct which the proper from their actions and justifying inferences with evidence  and distinct which the proper from their actions and justifying inferences with evidence  and distinct which the proper from their actions and justifying inferences with evidence |   |  |   |   |                            |
| predicting what might happen from details stated and implied  |   |  |   |   |                            |
| identifying main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph and summarising these   |   |  |   |   |                            |
| <ul> <li>identifying how language, structure, and presentation contribute to meaning</li> <li>retrieve and record information from non-fiction</li> </ul>   |   |  |   |   |                            |
| <ul> <li>retrieve and record information from non-fiction</li> <li>participate in discussion about both books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say.</li> </ul>   |   |  |   |   |                            |
| • participate in discussion about both books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say.  Vocabulary, Grammar and Punctuation  |   |  |   |   |                            |
| Text Structure  | Vocabulary, Gramm Sentence Structure                                  |  | Punctuation   | Terminology for Pupils  |                            |
| Use of paragraphs to organise ideas around a theme  |   | noun or noun within a sentence to avoid                                    | Use of speech marks to punctuate direct spee  |   |                            |
| Appropriate choice of pronoun or noun across sentences   | ambiguity and repetition  | iodh or houn within a sentence to avoid                                    | Use of speech marks to punctuate direct speech Apostrophes to mark singular and plural possession (e.g. the girl's name, pronoun, adverbial |   |                            |
| Appropriate choice of pronoun or noun across sentences  | Fronted adverbials  |  | the boys' boots)  |   |                            |
|   | Extending the range of sentences with more than one clause by using a |  | Use of commas after fronted adverbials (e.g. Later that day, I heard  |   |                            |
|   |   | ns, including when, if, because, although.                                 | the bad news.)  |   |                            |
|   |   |  |   |   |                            |
| Using the present perfect form of verbs in contrast to the past tense.  Choosing nouns or pronouns appropriately for clarity and cohesion and to  |   |  |   |   |                            |
| avoid repetition.   |   | os and prepositions to express time and cause,                             |   |   |                            |
|   |   |  |   |   | osing conjunctions, duvert |
| a. discussing texts similar to the one they are planning to writ  | te in order to  | •                                    | lly (including dialogue),progressively building a   | a. assessing the effectiveness of their own and others' writing and   |                            |
| understand and learn from their structure, grammar and vocabulary b. discussing and recording ideas  understand and learn from their structure, grammar and vocabulary b. discussing and recording ideas  t. in narrative texts, creating setti   |   |  |   |   |                            |
|   |   |  | .gg. 0, 00000 011 doi:di 00   | suggesting improvements b. proposing changes to grammar and vocabulary to improve consistency e.g. the accurate use |                            |
|   |   |  | practers and plot   | of pronouns in sentences  |                            |
|   |   | d. in non-narrative texts, using simple organisational devices such as     |   | • proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors  |                            |
| · 등   문   |   | headings and sub-headings  |   | • read aloud their own writing, to a group or the whole class, using appropriate intonation and                     |                            |
|   |   | e. using the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause |   | controlling tone and volume so that the meaning is clear  |                            |
|   | o. asing the perfect form of terbs to mark                            | Totalionomps of Time and cause   | b commonly rolls and rolatile so that the meaning is clear  |   |                            |
|   |   |  |   |   |                            |
| Writing - Transcription (Spelling)  |   |  | Writing - Handwriting   |   |                            |
| Pupils should be taught to:   |   |  | Pupils should be taught to:   |   |                            |
| <ul> <li>use further prefixes and suffixes and understand how to add them (Appendix 1)</li> </ul>   |   |  | • use the diagonal and horizontal strokes that are needed to join letters and understand which letters, when adjacent to one another, are best            |   |                            |
| <ul> <li>spell further homophones</li> </ul>  |   |  | left unjoined   |   |                            |
| spell words that are often misspelt (Appendix 1)  |   |  | • increase the legibility, consistency and quality of their handwriting, e.g. by ensuring that the downstrokes of letters are parallel and equidistant;   |   |                            |
| use the first two or three letters of a word to check its spelling in a dictionary  |   |  | that lines of writing are spaced sufficiently   | so that the ascenders and descenders of letters do not touch.   |                            |
| <ul> <li>write from memory simple sentences, dictated by the teacher, that i</li> </ul>   | nclude words and punctuation  | taught so far.   |   |   |                            |
|   |   |  |   |   |                            |